GILL, who may be found at 5950 Siltstone Ln Apt 824, Fort Worth, TX 76137-8012, (817) 884-1622, POSSIBLE EMAILS judgegill@hotmail.com judgegill@verizon.net judgegill@charter.net rgill@flash.net judgegill@epix.net, RELATED LINKS <https://www.linkedin.com/in/bob-gill-aa307277> http://www.avvo.com/attorneys/_-144577.html http://www.facebook.com/people/_/1811363438 <http://www.amazon.com/gp/pdp/profile/A2OBB03IMWMHSZ/> <http://www.GillBrissette.com> <https://www.linkedin.com/company/tarrant-county> <https://www.linkedin.com/edu/southern-illinois-university-carbondale-18306> <https://www.linkedin.com/school/southern-illinois-university/> <http://www.facebook.com/bob.gill.585> <http://www.amazon.com/wishlist/23BBG3CE25ID4>, or wherever found, to appear at 401 W. Belknap St., Ft. Worth, TEXAS 76196, in the aforementioned Judicial District Court, on (date): _____, at (time): _____.

To attend and give testimony at a deposition in this case on behalf of the Applicant, and to remain in attendance from day to day until lawfully discharged.

Duties of Person Served with Subpoena. You are advised that under Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 176, a person served with a subpoena has certain rights and obligations. Rule 176.6 provides the following:

(a) Compliance required. Except as provided in this subdivision, a person served with a subpoena must comply with the command stated therein unless discharged by the court or by the party summoning such witness. A person commanded to appear and give testimony must remain at the place of deposition, hearing, or trial from day to day until discharged by the court or by the party summoning the witness.

(b) Organizations. If a subpoena commanding testimony is directed to a corporation, partnership, association, governmental agency, or other organization, and the matters on which examination is requested are described with reasonable particularity, the organization must designate one or more persons to testify on its behalf as to matters known or reasonably available to the organization.

(c) Production of documents or tangible things. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things need not appear in person at the time and place of production unless the person is also commanded to attend and give testimony, either in the same subpoena or a separate one. A person must produce documents as they are kept in the usual course of business or must organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand. A person may withhold material or information claimed to be privileged but must comply with Rule 193.3. A nonparty's production of a document authenticates the document for use against the nonparty to the same extent as a party's production of a document is authenticated for use against the party under Rule 193.7.

(d) Objections. A person commanded to produce or permit inspection or copying of designated documents and things may serve on the party requesting issuance of the subpoena - before the time specified for compliance - written objections to producing any or all of the designated materials. A person need not comply with the part of a subpoena to which objection is made as provided in this paragraph unless ordered to do so by the court. The party requesting the subpoena may move for such an order at any time after an objection is made.

(e) Protective orders. A person commanded to appear at a deposition, hearing, or trial, or to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated documents and things, and any other person affected by the subpoena, may move for a protective order under Rule 192.6(b) - before the time specified for compliance - either in the court in which the action is pending or in a district court in the county where the subpoena was served. The person must serve the motion on all parties in accordance with Rule 21 a. A person need not comply with the part of a subpoena from which protection is sought under this paragraph unless ordered to do so by the court. The party requesting the subpoena may seek such an order at any time after the motion for protection is filed.

(f) Trial subpoenas. A person commanded to attend and give testimony, or to produce documents or things, at a hearing or trial, may object or move for protective order before the court at the time and place specified for compliance, rather than under paragraphs (d) and (e).

Contempt. Failure by any person without adequate excuse to obey a subpoena served on the person may be deemed a contempt of the court from which the subpoena is issued or a district court in the county in which the subpoena is served, and may be punished by fine or confinement or both. Tex. R. Civ. P. 176.8(a).

DO NOT FAIL to return this writ to [identify court in which case is pending] with either the attached officer's return showing the manner of execution or the witness's signed memorandum showing that the witness accepted the subpoena.

BARTON R. GAINES	§	213TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT

Deposition on Written Questions for Robert K. Gill

(1. Concerted effort; Time Barred & response)

Was it a concerted effort or just sheer coincidence that you ordered petitioner's, Bart's, State trial attorneys, Greg Westfall and Cheyenne Minick, to respond to his, Bart's, 11.07s on the same day his, Bart's, 2254 Judge, Terry R. Means, dismissed Bart's 2254 without prejudice, except as to any tolling provisions under the AEDPA?

(2. Reprimanded / Resigned)

Was it just sheer coincidence that you just up and decided to leave the bench after Bart's 11.07s were filed, but before they ruled on, or was there some other reason, and if some other reason, what was it? That is, were you reprimanded for conspiring with Westfall and Minick for failing to charge the jury on the law applicable to his case?

(3. Criminal Responsibility charge)

Why didn't you charge the jury on the law applicable to Bart's punishment case, or why didn't you correct his trial attorneys' misconception on the law with regards to the presumption of innocence on a punishment case respecting the unadjudicated extraneous crimes respondent accused Bart of at sentencing?

(4. Whitney Whitman)

Why did you appoint Whitney Whitman to represent Bart on his direct appeal? He was a civil lawyer. And why does his name appear all over Bart's direct appeal records in place of Paul Francis? He was appointed between Reagan Wynn, whom Westfall and Minnick requested you appoint Bart, and Paul Francis, whom you ultimately appointed Bart to represent him on his direct appeal. Was it to skew, confuse, or hedge Francis from scrutiny?
